Yet I am confident I will see the LORD's goodness while I am here in the land of the living.

Psalms 27:13

Looking back over this past Fall, it seems like the weeks rolled into months and before we know it the Winter will be upon us! We give thanks to God for a good, but busy ministry trip to N. Ireland back in September. It was wonderful to connect with so many who pray regularly for the work of Faith Mission in Canada and have a deep love for what is going on here. In total we spoke at 10 different meetings over the two weeks and we believe God used this time to 'strengthen the ropes' and to encourage the saints to keep praying for Revival and the needs here in Canada.

The various Fall events such as the Rallies, Hymn Sing and Retreats were all rich times of fellowship, ministry and new contacts. We were glad to have Jani Goudy over from Alberta as the speaker for the Fall Ladies Retreat and her ministry was well received and a blessing to the ladies who attended. Our Annual Men's Conference in Fergus with Dr Francois Carr from South Africa was also a tremendous time of blessing! We long to see a true, genuine outpouring of the Spirit of God in these days that will impact every heart, every community and every church across our nation! Will you make this a matter of definite prayer with us?

Along with our regular ministry commitments of kids' club, visitation, preaching etc. we have lots ahead of us over the coming months which we very much value your prayers for. By the time you are reading this we will be in the throes of our 'Family Christmas in the Country Banquets' at Campbellville. It appears at this stage that all of the 6 banquets will be full and we are anticipating a great time where the Gospel will be clearly presented through the Christmas program. We long to hear of souls saved as a result of these outreach opportunities!

The highlight at the start of year will be our Day of Prayer at Campbellville on January 3 as we begin the year seeking the Lord for the work of FM, for our churches, our communities and our land. Put this on your calendar and plan to join with us! We are also gearing up for our Winter Camps commencing January 23 (for two weekends) – pray that both weekends will be full with kids and youth coming along to hear of Jesus. We long for a fresh touch from God upon each aspect of FM ministry as we go into a new year and many lives impacted by the power of the Gospel. Thank you for standing with us!

FUTURE EVENTS

Day of Prayer: Jan 3

Junior Winter Camp: Jan 23-25

Teen Winter Camp: Jan 30-Feb 1

Men's Retreat #1: Feb 20-21

Men's Retreat #2: Feb 27-28

March Break YLT: Mar 15-18

On behalf of us all in the Faith Mission Canada family, we would like to wish you and yours a blessed Christmas season as you reflect upon the true meaning – that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. And thank you again for your faithful support over another year in the life of FM Canada. We are your servants for Christ's sake!

We have just come through a very full fall season of rental groups and retreats. It was a wonderful time serving them and seeing so many people come together to spend time in God's presence. We are looking forward to spending a weekend together early November with most of the Ontario staff. And we will all be guests! That will be a special time. Now with Christmas In The Country Banquets ahead we are gearing up for all those preparations. We are excited to start the Christmas season and celebrate Christ's birth and the Joy He brings. The first Saturday in January is our Day of Prayer. We continue through January and February with Winter Kids Camps and Men's Retreats. Practically, we were thankful to get a Storage Container for the new tent to be stored in and free up space in the shop. We also have been having some issues with the Camp Truck and plow which is a pressing need for us as we approach the Winter season. Pray for the Lord's provision for these needs before us.

If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me.

Psalms 66:18

Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

Is. 59:1-2

We have been challenged lately in our own personal prayer lives and in the many prayer meetings we're a part of just how important it is to keep our hearts right before the Lord! We have been praying Psalm 139:23-24, "Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me and know my thoughts: and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting." And He has been so faithful! And as we've been seeking to confess our sins to the Lord and turn away from any idols, God has also been challenging us in the area of believing Him for His promise, "If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your Heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him?" We're praying for faith like Abraham, "He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; And being fully persuaded that, what He had promised, he was able also to perform." Rom. 4:20-21. We are asking God to fill us with faith to believe for a powerful outpouring of His Spirit on our own lives, our families, our communities and across our nation. It was also great for us to be in Ontario when Jani spoke at the Fall Ladies Retreat there. We pray that God would continue the work He has begun in the lives of these ladies.

For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. ... Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Hebrews 4:12,16

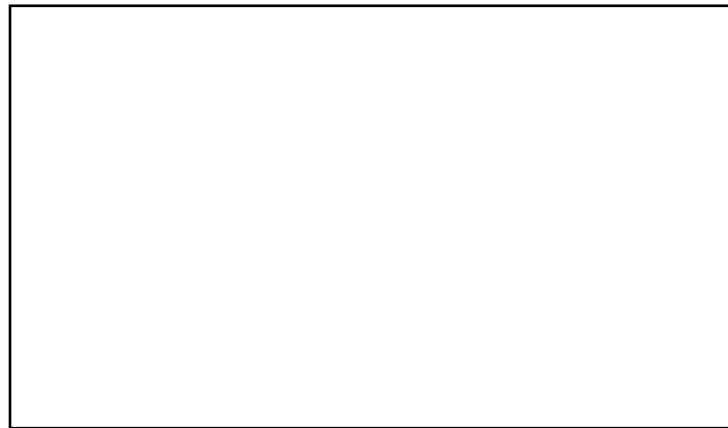

We are constantly reminded of not only the goodness and faithfulness of God, but also the power of His Word. It's with that confidence in Him, as we look to Jesus, that we can find the strength to continue to boldly share the good news of the gospel with a world that desperately needs to come to know the Saviour!

The Fall season began with a transition for our family, as now three of our kids have left home for college\life. Please continue to pray for each of them as they seek to find the place the Lord has for them in this world. In September, we were blessed to be able to travel back to Quebec (where we had served the Lord for ten years before joining the Faith Mission) and reconnect with some of our dear friends in the churches in Montreal. We were reminded of the fact that the family of God is so much bigger than just our small corner of the mission field and that we are all on the same team. October meant that we were able to join with the other Mission workers from Ontario for the Toronto Rally, attend various courses and conferences, and serve at the Fall Ladies Retreat at the Faith Mission Centre in Campbellville. Mark continues to see the Lord's provision in opening doors and opportunities to preach the Word in our district. And April's evenings are primarily taken up with serving three nights a week in the town of Wingham, both with the church there, as well as volunteering her time with YFC.

As Winter approaches, we're looking forward to serving at the Faith Mission "Christmas in the Country" banquets at the end of November, as well as praying expectantly towards both the Winter Camps and Youth Leadership Training over the school March Break. Please pray that the Lord would continue to grant us wisdom and discernment, as well, that the Lord would continue to lead and provide.

JESUS REVEALS THE GLORY OF GOD

By Jonathan Griffiths

The Old Testament reveals God as entirely glorious, but also as unapproachable in His glory. It shows that His glory is too bright, too radiant, too pure for sinners like us to approach. Of course, the New Testament picks up on this theme, but it shows us that, in the coming of Jesus, something radical and wonderful has taken place.

A verse that I continue to return to when I think about the attributes of God is found at the start of John's gospel. It is one of the most important verses bridging the Old Testament and the New. Referring to Jesus, John wrote, "And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth" (John 1:14). Moses longed to see the glory of God, but God told him he could not do so and live. Isaiah saw something of the Lord in His glory in a vision, but he feared he would be consumed by the display. But now, in Jesus we have seen the glory of God. As the Son became flesh in the incarnation, the glorious God came to us in a way that we could see and know Him, without us being consumed by the sheer radiance of His holiness.

Our God is the God of glory. I wonder if you know Him?

The revelation of the glory of God in the person and work of Jesus is a theme that John in particular explored and developed in his gospel. John wanted us to see that as we watch and listen to Jesus, there is a revealing of the very glory of God. When Jesus performed His first miracle in chapter 2, turning water into wine at the wedding at Cana, John wrote, "This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him" (John 2:11). The miracles of Jesus reveal His glory and give us a window into His majesty, power, and beauty. Yet as the gospel account progressed, Jesus made it clear that the true moment of glory—the moment when His glory would be revealed most profoundly and radiantly—would be as He died on the cross.

In chapter 12, Jesus gave one of the most significant predictions of His death:

"The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. Now is my soul troubled. And what shall I say? 'Father, save me from this hour'? But for this purpose I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven: "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again." (John 12:23–28)

What is the moment of “glorification” according to John? When would the glory of God shine most clearly through the person and work of Jesus? It is at the cross, where the kernel of wheat fell to the ground and died to give life to many. It is at the cross, the place of torment from which Jesus might have asked to be saved. He came for that hour because the Father’s name would be revealed as glorious, lifted up and exalted, as the Son died for sinners like us.

It is worth pausing for a moment to take this in. God is glorious—radiant in power and majesty and holiness and goodness. He is so glorious that Moses could not look on His glory without being destroyed. But in Jesus, through the miracle of the incarnation, we have now seen the glory of God. We have seen His glory in the miracles He performed and the words He spoke, but this revelation of glory reached its pinnacle at the very moment when God the Son died in agony and humility for the sin of His people.

What does this say about our glorious God and His character and nature? If that is the moment of the revelation of the glory of God, what kind of God is this? If the ugliness and agony and shame of the cross is the glory of the all-glorious God, then who is this God we worship and this Lord we adore? He is the God of mercy and compassion, of grace and justice. He is the God of love untold, of grace unfathomable. He is the God whose glory it is to die for His rebellious, lost, and hopeless creatures. He is the God whose radiant glory is revealed as He gives His one and only Son for you and for me.

Our God is the God of glory. I wonder if you know Him? I wonder if, with the eyes of faith, you have seen Him in His glory in the person of His Son? I wonder if the sheer radiance of His glory has transformed your life and shone into your heart? If you do not know Him, you can know Him. If you have not come to Him, you can come to Him. You do it by trusting in His Son and receiving the love and grace and mercy He poured out at the cross. That is, quite simply, the offer of the gospel and it is for you and for me. It is for all who will believe.

Believe the king's Word, follow the king's Path, seek the king's City
John Bunyan

We continue to serve the newly replanted Grace Community Church Grassie in Grimsby. Sam began a new series on the book of Ephesians in September. At the end of October, it was decided that the morning services will be suspended for the foreseeable future. It makes sense since the morning service has declined while the evening service is growing. As the evening service grows and the church gets stable, the morning service will return. We look forward to our partnership into the future. The plan for now is that we will be helping with a VBS in the summer and hopefully a hymn sing and a future conference that is in the works. In October we had the privilege to attend Cheyne Presbyterian Church in Stoney Creek for their Mission's Sunday. Sam shared about The Faith Mission, our work in Southern Ontario, and preached from Galatians 6:15 "The Change We are After." It was a blessing to reconnect with this church that has supported the Faith Mission for many years and has helped in sponsoring youth to attend the summer camps. In November, Sam served at the Faith Mission Fergus Men's Conference, and he continued to help pastors get a break by preaching for The Mill Christian Fellowship in Mississauga and Grace Family Bible Fellowship in Delhi. Nicholette served at the Faith Mission Ladies (weekend) Retreat in October. She always enjoys gathering with the ladies and seeing them connect with the Lord and each other. As usual, she came with a new craft for the ladies to do. She had 16 ladies join in. They are always enthusiastic and creative. Late November, we are serving at the highly anticipated Christmas in the Country at the FM Centre. Sam will be sharing a message twice and Nicholette will do a children's talk. We look forward to seeing you! We also look forward to serving your children at the FM Winter Camp in January, 2026. For us personally, we long for your prayers for Sam's dad, Don, who is struggling with stage 4 cancer. He doesn't know the Lord. Please also continue to pray for hearts to be opened to Jesus in Southern Ontario.

Recently there seems to be a great sense of expectation for revival in our midst like we've never seen before! We are so encouraged to hear of certain churches dedicating specific times of prayer for revival here in Québec. Rob attended one of these meetings this past summer and was touched by the sincere longing the people had in their hearts for revival. The person who led the meeting informed him that there were other similar meetings happening in other parts of the province. Rob was also recently in contact with a man who experienced a real personal revival years ago, and his testimony placed a longing in his own heart to experience the same thing. It's so exciting to hear how God is stirring hearts in Québec! We so desperately need a powerful manifestation of the Holy Spirit in our midst!

Rob has been busy helping several people with practical needs this Fall. These needs can often be a burden due to the high costs of hiring tradesmen to do the work. One way Rob can serve the church is by helping in this capacity. When winter arrives, he will be able to return to the prisons to minister there once again. In the meantime, while juggling different projects, he has had many opportunities to preach and teach. While Debra is quite busy with the immediate needs of our family and homeschooling, she has a heart to invest in younger women. She has been praying about how she can serve in this way. She has recently contacted several younger women who have a desire to follow Jesus to see if they would be interested in getting together for a Bible study and prayer. There definitely seemed to be much interest. Nothing has started yet, but Debra is trying to organize what works best according to everyone's availability. The potential of discipling younger women is exciting!

Another encouragement is an answer to prayer in regard to Debra seeking for a woman in Québec with whom she could pray with in person. God brought her another woman of the same age who is also involved in full-time ministry and who has a real heart for the Lord. They are hoping to pray on a weekly basis for God's work in their own hearts and ministry. There is a bit of a distance between the two, so they will not pray every week in person. But we praise God as we see His hand at work in this. Thank you so much once again for praying on our behalf!

God has been gracious to us this Fall! Our load has been lightened by some wonderful people who have taken on some administration, cleaning and kitchen help for the camp (Riley) and maintenance and Youth Group (Gideon). We are so thankful to be able to step back a bit and have time to be more focused and intentional with some of our other responsibilities! Conan had the opportunity to take a van load of our camp staff to Youth Edge at Millar College of the Bible in Saskatchewan - what a great trip! It is exciting to connect as well as to watch them seek growth and draw near to the Lord. It seems wild, but we are already building teams and making plans for camp next summer! We praise God for His faithfulness in the growth of the camp and pray that He would walk alongside us in the growing pains. We continue to get together with the camp staff once a month, which is an incredible blessing - winter camp is coming soon! The church continues to be a blessing and encouragement to us! We are so thankful that God has placed us where we are - thank you for praying!

*Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.
Galatians 6:9*

Thank you for faithfully praying for the children and youth that I work with! It was an exciting start to Verona Junior Youth. We had several new Grade 5's who have continued to attend. One parent told me their children left the first night with big smiles on their faces! It was also amazing to have one of the girls, who does not come from a Christian home, get baptized recently. Please pray that her whole family would come to know Christ.

It's been encouraging to see a greater engagement from community families at St. Mary Magdalene Anglican Church. This has been since we switched from regular youth to the Awana program for JK to Grade 12. A church who was no longer able to run the program gave us all their old Awana resources including lesson books, T shirts, vests and other resources. This was a huge blessing to us and the program participants. It has also been a blessing to see how many of the kids/youth are learning their memory verses!

At the end of September, I was able to take some teens from St. Mary's Magdalene Church to a youth retreat at Camp Cherith in Lanark. This is the third year we have taken them and it continues to be a blessing to the teens. During the weekend I learned that one of the teens asked the pastor of St. Mary's to be baptized! She has been coming to youth on and off for about two years. The theme of the weekend was 'Planted'. The last session was on how important it is to be planted in a local church. This same teen went home and joined the choir at church! Since then, she has been going to church regularly. It has been a privilege to work with several churches of different denominations come together to put this weekend on.

My weekly schedule is as follows: Monday - Marlbank kids club. Tuesday - Wilton kids club. Wednesday - Verona Jr youth. Friday - Awana in Napanee. Thank you for your prayers for me!

And we have seen and testify that The Father has sent His Son to be the Saviour of the world.

1 John 4:14

As Christmas quickly approaches, we are reminded of the greatest gift to mankind— the Saviour of our souls – Jesus Christ! Yet, we rejoice in the blessings of our Saviour all year round! We have seen Him at work in the lives of children, youth, men & women, and can testify of the transforming work in former drug & alcohol abusers trapped by the chains of sin. What an incredible joy to watch God break those chains and begin a beautiful season of growth in these new brothers & sisters in Christ. Our home Bible Study has been bursting at the seams this Fall as we studied the foundations of the Faith. A particular new believer brought such a fresh newness to our group as she began with zero knowledge of God and the Word. Her questions brought us all back to the awe and wonder of the Gospel.

We continue to hear wonderful reflections of our Ladies Retreat in September where our speaker challenged us to seek the wonder and wisdom of God's Word. We've had the joy of catering for a wide variety of church groups, and we praise God for blessing us as we blessed them. God continues to bring the staff and volunteers we need just at the right times, and we continue to look to Him to provide for all of our needs.

Winter Camp for kids is scheduled for February 6-8, 2026. Our next Marriage Enrichment Retreat is March 27-29. Summer camp registrations and Staff applications will be pouring in come January. Thank you for your prayers and support of God's work at Falkland Faith Mission Camp.
